HIT HIGH PLACES DURING HIS STAY

Furniture Dealers and Others Are Getting Busy With Their Attachments.

MANY ARE LOOKING FOR HIM

H. A. Cunningham, a young man who hit the "high places" only while "working" Paducah, left last week for the south with no particular destination in view and following close in the wake of his departure came creditors with unpaid bills and a desire to wreak vengeance. But only by reporting to the courts could any degree of satisfaction be secured.

Yesterday morning Constable A. C. Shelton, armed with a warrant of attachment issued by Magistrate Justice Charles W. Emery, invaded the suite of rooms occupied by Cunningham, 126 South Fourth street. The office was furnished elaborately, and not an item of convenience was lacking. The next room, a bedroom, was found to be even more sumptuously fitted out. The entire ceiling was covered by a huge Japanese fan and little electric light globes of various hues and colors studded the soft folds of the umbrella. The color scheme was carried out to the fullest in the arrangement of the room. The furniture was said to be about as good as is possible to secure in Paducah.

Garner Bros., local furnishers, had in a bill for $153 and F. N. Gardner & company presented a bill for $50. Will J. Gilbert brought in another for $8.85.

Cunningham was an agent for the American Benevolent association, health and accident insurance, and his office being closed it is presumed he left no successor.

Magistrate Emery stated that no date for the sale has been set.

Cunningham and his partner, named Trimble were last seen in Chattanooga in company with a well known young woman who left Paducah a few days after their departure.

WILL BUILD LINE TO METROPOLIS

Herrin, Ill., March 2.—The Burlington corps of surveyors have surveyed four routes from this city and Camden, the little line station a few miles north of here, southward for the extension of their line. It will be known definitely in a few weeks which of the four routes they will build. There is a probability of them forking the line from Herrin, one branch bearing eastward in its route to the south and the other southwestward towards Thebes bridge. The surveyors are spending most of their time this month between Vienna and Metropolis trying to find the best route through the hills and hollows of Johnson and Massac counties.

PINNED HER HAT TO BACK OF MAN INSTEAD OF SEAT.

While sitting in the Kentucky several nights ago Mr. Russell Long was jabbed in the back with a hat pin by a young lady sitting behind him, who was trying to pin her hat to the back of the seat.

Warrant for Cutting Trees.

Charles Cole and Monroe Douglas, white, are being sought by McCracken county constables on a warrant charging them with trespass and the willful destruction of trees on the property of Cora Burton colored, who resides near the first whistle on the N. C. & St. L. The negro claims that the men came on her property last week and cut down several trees for timber and she did not discover it until they had made away with the logs.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

SHOOT SWEETHEART.

Cleveland, March 2.—Desperate because his 15-year-old sweetheart preferred another, John S. Zealy caught the girl in his arms last night and, holding her firmly, shot her dead. He failed in an attempt to escape and shot himself. His wound is not serious.

MOB AS USUAL.

Bloomington, Ill., March 2.—Twenty armed men inside the county jail prevented a threatened attack by a mob bent on lynching Thompson Baldwin, who killed Cora Eisman, her mother, and Charles Kennedy and his wife. There has never been a legal hanging in this county. Twenty years ago Ed Pierce, who killed his jailor, was hanged by a mob. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of wilful murder against Baldwin on all four counts.

RIOT LAST NIGHT.

Portsmouth, O., March 2.—After a riot last night in which a man brought here to assist in breaking the street car strike, was badly injured, one of the best cars owned by the company, which was abandoned outside the city, by strike breakers, was burned. President York, of the street car company, announced today he would call on the sheriff for protection. If he fails to receive it he will appeal to the governor for the militia.

FIGHT ASSURED.

Reno, Nev., March 2.—The fight between Young Corbett and Jimmy Britt, which has been hanging fire, is now assured. Reno will be the battleground. The men will fight for a purse of $15,000 at 133 pounds.

NO INSURANCE.

San Francisco, March 2.—Much apprehension is felt by business men on account of the difficulty of procuring insurance. Several companies have withdrawn from the Pacific coast. Others refuse to write risks beyond a certain limit.

GIRLS STRIKE.

Sandusky, O., March 2.—Two hundred girls, employed in Jackson's Underwear factory, struck today. They assert their wages were cut about 30 per cent. last pay day without notice. They demand a restoration of the old scale.

VILLAGE FIRE.

Leroy, Ill., March 2.—Fire, which broke out at midnight in the business district, burned two blocks, and threatened the entire town with destruction. Aid from adjoining towns was summoned. The fire was controlled after a loss of $200,000 was entailed.

WILL FIGHT CASE.

Concord, N. H., March 2.—General Frank Storey, personal counsel for Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, leader of the Christian Scientists, said the suit brought by her son, George W. Glover, will be fought on each issue involved. He denies Mrs. Eddy is mentally irrational or physically enfeebled.

LONDON ELECTION.

London, March 2.—Today's election for members of the London county council closes a campaign fought on issues hitherto almost exclusively American. To a great extent American campaign methods have prevailed for the first time in English history. The trust question is before the voters. Municipal ownership is also a contention.

GRAIN MARKET.

Cincinnati, March 2.—Wheat, 79; corn, 49; oats, 46.

MASS CONVENTION CALLED IN COUNTY

McCracken county Democrats will meet in mass convention at the court house Saturday afternoon, March 30, at 2 o'clock, to nominate a candidate for representative. The committee, 19 out of 35 precincts being represented, met at the court house this afternoon and decided on the time, place and manner. J. W. Skelton, one of the candidates, favored a primary. James McKinney and Eugene Graves, the other two candidates, favored the convention.

SUBSIDY PASSED IN BITTER FIGHT

Democrats and Republicans
Join Forces

Only South American Lines Subsidized and No Old Ships Are Eligible.

ORIENTAL LINES LOSE OUT.

Washington, March 2.—It has been years since the house was the scene of so royal a battle as it witnessed there over the ship subsidy bill. The bill was passed but not until after it had been once defeated and this fact in itself shows how close the alignment was.

When the first vote disclosed a majority against the measure the allies made the house ring with cheers.

There were several roll calls before the final favorable vote was secured. The vote on the Littauer substitute was defeated on the first vote by 154 to 161. Democrats could not retain their lead, however, for on a vote to lay on the table the motion to reconsider, the opponents of the ship subsidy were defeated 156 to 150 and the vote to reconsider the first vote was adopted 14 to 154.

Whipped Back Into Line.

Then there were other votes but immediately after the first ballot desertions began and on the final vote to pass the bill as amended, the work done by Republican leaders during the height of the battle was made manifest and the bill was passed 155 to 144. Following are the Republicans who voted with the Democrats in opposition:

Burton, Campbell, Chapman, Cooper, of Wisconsin; Darrah, Davidson, of Wisconsin; Davis, of Minnesota; Fordrey, Paulkerson, Gilham, Graff, of Illinois; Gronna, Hamilton, Hinshaw, Holliday, Jenkins, Kinkaid, Knott, C. N. Landis, Fred Landis, Lawrence McCarthy, McGavin, McKinney, of Illinois; Mann, Marshall, Miller, Mouser, Murdock, Nelson, Perkins, of New York; Stafford, Steener, Steven, Voistead, Webber, Weems, Wilson, of Illinois, and Wood of New York.

Four Lines to Be Subsidized.

Only four steamship lines are to be subsidized under the measure in the form finally agreed upon and all these are to sail for South American ports. One of the lines is to be from the Atlantic coast to Brazil; the second from the Atlantic coast to Argentina; the third Atlantic line between the Gulf of Mexico and Brazil and the fourth line from the Pacific coast to the isthmus of Panama, Peru and Chile.

The annual subsidy of each of these lines is to be $300,000 for monthly mail service or $600,000 for fortnightly service, excepting the Argentine line which is to have $400,000 for monthly service of $800,000 for fortnightly service. No American cities are named as ports from which any lines are to start and the bill is so worded that the line in the Pacific to South American can touch at any number of ports in the United States.

The same is true of the Atlantic lines. It is provided in the bill that vessels profiting by this subvention of carrying mail must have a speed of not less than 1 knots and it has been repeatedly stated on the floor of the house that no ships now engaged in South American trade can make any such speed.

MR. FRED B. ASHTON TO LEAVE FOR CHATTANOOGA.

Mr. Fred B. Ashton, formerly superintendent of carriers and chief clerk in the local postoffice, and who has been made a postoffice inspector, will leave in the morning for Chattanooga, Tenn., which is the direct headquarters of the states; Florida, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee. He will then be appointed to a local territory including one of the above states. Mrs. Ashton will remain here for several weeks until Mr. Ashton has been assigned to his local territory.

One Cent on Mailing Cards.

Postmaster Frank Fisher has received instructions from Washington for a one cent postage on private mailing cards and souvenir postal cards. Heretofore a regular letter rate had been charged. This rule was adopted because pictures generally took up all the space on the side opposite that for the address, giving no room for writing.

OFFICER COMING FROM TENNESSEE

T. E. Patterson, High in Councils of Woodmen of the World Will Confer With Local Men About Camp

PLANS OF MEETING MATURING.

The first active preparations for the big head camp meeting W. O. W. to be held here beginning March 12, will be made on the arrival of County Trustee T. E. Patterson, of Chattanooga, Tenn., a member of the Sovereign Camp with headquarters at Omaha, Neb. Wednesday he comes to meet with local Woodmen and arrange for a reception of delegates.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the meeting. It is held for the purpose of organizing the camp and electing officers. Magistrate Charles W. Emery now a member of the Sovereign Camp from Tennessee and Kentucky, will be a candidate for Head Counsel of the State Head Camp.

There will be nearly 200 delegates here and the meeting will last from three to four days.

CAPT. FLASCH'S COMMISSION HAS REACHED HIM AT LAST

J. B. Flasch, engineer on the ferryboat Bettie Owen, recently elected business manager of the Marine Engineers' association at the annual convention in Washington City, has received his commission and will start on his first round of official duties Monday. Albert Mason, who ran on the steamer Joe Fowler last season, but who has been running a machine shop at Lone Oak lately, will succeed Mr. Flasch on the Bettie Owen. Captain Flasch will make Paducah his headquarters at the rooms of the Marine Engineers' association 118 Broadway.

MADSTONE IS APPLIED TO MAN WHO WAS BITTEN.

J. R. Chandler, of Birdsville, arrived this morning to have Frank Mantz's madstone applied to a bite he received night before last from a mad dog. Mr. Chandler has some registered shepherd puppies that were bitten by a mad dog. While playing with them one of the puppies bit Mr. Chandler in the left hand. He thought nothing of the wound but a few hours later the dogs began to froth at the mouth and developed a case of rabies. The madstone stuck instantly this morning when applied. Mr. Chandler will remain at the New Richmond house until tomorrow.

BANK CLEARINGS TAKE A BIG JUMP

Wholesale Houses Have All Their Drummers on Road and Factories are Running at Full Blast

BIG TOBACCO MOVEMENT IS ON.

Bank clearings $892,383
Same week last year 723,420
Increase $168,963

Bank clearings take a big leap ahead of the corresponding period of last year, due to the great activity in all lines. The manufacturing houses are running full blast and the wholesale houses are showing the effect of having all their drummers out.

Much of the activity of trade is due to the heavy movements of tobacco. Five hundred loads were brought into the city by wagons this week, giving many of the farmers plenty of money.

Work of Night Riders.

Kuttawa Ky., March 2.—The news reached here this evening that 21 hogsheds of tobacco were rolled into Cumberland river at Rockcastle, Trigg county, last night by "Night Riders."

The tobacco was fished out and recovered, but greatly damaged, says the report. The tobacco was on the river bank, for shipment to Clarksville, having been purchased by an independent firm of that city from the farmers of the Rockcastle section of Trigg county.

The association and all others are getting along well in this section. Tobacco deliveries are being made to independent buyers and the association almost every day and perfect good feeling exists among all classes. The association is making friends here and it is predicted that almost everybody will pledge the 1907 crop if good prices continue to prevail.

Powers Does Not Want Robbins.

Lexington, Ky., March 2.—Caleb Powers, who is confined in the jail at Georgetown, expresses regret that Judge Robbins has been appointed to try him again. He said today: "Judge Robbins' record in my case speaks for itself. Anyone who has followed the trial closely understands it. While I was certain that Judge Robbins would be reappointed to Gov. Beckham, if for no other purpose than to deprive me of any legal rights I had in the matter, still I will be disappointed if he decides to try the case."

PLEADED GUILTY TO EMBEZZLEMENT

Elbert M. Stephenson, Former Mail Carrier, is Held to Federal Grand Jury This Morning by Commission

TOOK $21 FROM MONEY ORDER.

Held under $500 to answer to the next federal grand jury on the charge of embezzling $21 government fund from the money order department, Elbert M. Stephenson, former rural carrier of Cayce, Fulton county, is trying to secure bond. The young man waived examination and pleaded guilty when presented before Armour Gardner, United States commissioner, this morning. He was arrested at his home night before last by Wade Brown, deputy United States marshal.

COMPOSITIONS IN BANKRUPTCY CASES

Capt. Ed Farley was elected a trustee in the bankrupt case of J. R. Roberts this morning and a composition suggested, which was accepted by a majority of creditors in number and amount. It is for settlement on 30 per cent. The assets of the bankruptcy are invoiced at $6,000 and his liabilities will reach $5,000. It is stated the stock will not sell for more than $2,500.

In the bankrupt matter of Max Michaelson, Cecil Reed was elected trustee, and a composition is being considered. The composition will not amount to 50 per cent, it is stated. Michaelson's liabilities will reach about $5,000.

Because of the above cases, consuming the morning and afternoon, Referee E. W. Bagby had to adjourn the case of E. Rehkopf and Joan Ballinger, of Gilbertsville, until Monday.

Attack of Vertigo.

Mr. H. Miller Cunningham, the well-known plastering contractor, fell in an attack of vertigo near the Fraternity building yesterday afternoon and was taken home quite ill.

Leon Love, an engineer well known here, but who has recently been second engineer on the Bob Dudley, arrived from Nashville this morning with his right hand crushed. He was feeling over a dynamo when his hand was caught.

PADUCAH MAN FOR SUPERINTENDENCY

Consensus of Opinion Among Members of School Board,
It is Given Out

PROF. GEORGE O. MCBROOM

Seems to Be Favorite and Many Have Signed Petition Asking for His Appointment.

LOCAL MAN FOR PRINCIPAL

Indications point strongly now toward a local man as superintendent of the public schools. The three out-of-town applicants have been seen and from expressions heard from the board, they do not stand the chances of the local men on comparison. In the applications for principal of the High school, it is settled practically that a local man will secure the position. Professors C. A. Norvell and W. H. Sugg being the leading candidates. Among the principals and teaching corps, no great shaking up is anticipated now by the board. At Tuesday night's meeting, the school enumerators will be elected, the two applicants being G. H. Brown and J. M. Gilbert.

Prof. George McBroom is leading candidate for the superintendency, a petition having been circulated favorable to him.

Since The Sun's exclusive announcement of the names of six applicants for the superintendency of the Paducah public schools, a great deal of interest in the three "outsiders" is manifested. A consultation of Brewer's Superintendency Directory shows the only authentic figures of the size of schools over which each has jurisdiction.

Supt. S. H. Spragins, of Helena, Ark., has a total enrollment in his schools of 900, and there are five negroes to one white pupil.

Aberdeen, Miss., in charge of Supt. W. Y. Thornbury, has an enrollment of 670.

Noblesville, Ind., Supt. John A. Caragey, has an enrollment of 1,375.

In the Paducah schools there is a total enrollment of 3,700, over 1,000 being in the Washington building. This will show that two of the applicants have less enrollment in all their schools than there are in one of the eight buildings in Paducah.

LIVELY FOOT RACE.

When Stranger Accosted Mr. Zack
Hayes at Night.

Accosted by a stranger, who demanded the pleasure of his society, Mr. Zack Hayes, a well-known clerk in the Rudy-Phillips store, took the initiative in an impromptu foot race and outstripped his pursuer in a contest with home as the goal. Mr. Hayes lives at 1700 Broadway, and ran from Ninth street.

Mr. Hayes had taken a young lady to a dance and after seeing her safely at home started for his residence. When he turned into Broadway from South Ninth street he was surprised by a stranger stepping out from behind a telephone pole.

"Where are you going?" the stranger queried.

"Home," was the curt reply.

"Well, I guess, I will go with you," the stranger retorted, and with this attempted to grab the young man's arm.

Hayes replied, "I guess you won't," and took to his heels.

Couldn't Stop Gun.

A perforated coal house stands for the work of a "new fangled" automatic revolver Mr. Van Burnett, of 1434 Broadway the well known clothing salesman at Welle & Son's store, heard a negro in his coal house. He secured his patent rapid-fire automatic revolver, started the artillery going and could not stop it. The man dived out of a convenient window and hurried across the open commons to a cut toward Broadway.

Freaks of the Sea.

"The fact that over a million and a half persons passed through its doors during the past year, nearly five thousand daily, stamps it as easily the most popular show-place in the world," writes Lillian E. Zeh, describing the New York aquarium in the March number of the Technical World Magazine. "It was turned over to the management of the New York Zoological Society two years ago. Through the courtesy of Mr. Townsend, the director, and Mr. W. de Nyse, in charge of the marine collections, the writer was afforded special facilities for obtaining typical poses of the animals at feeding time, a favorable opportunity for catching characteristic and life positions. Lunch hour is about 3 o'clock, and though many miss it, is one of the most interesting and spectacular events of the day.

"Getting up the daily menu for the vast assembly of fishes requires more labor and expense than is generally known. One attendant devotes about half of each day to the preparation of the food, and several others are kept busy the remainder of the afternoon in feeding. The food is varied to suit the size of the specimen, and consists of beef (sliced, chopped, or minced) liver, and fish, cod and herring mostly. A considerable amount of live minnows and shrimps is also used."

Miss Zeh follows with descriptions of the queer "monsters of the sea" and their methods of satisfying their queer appetites. In an account which is very entertaining. The article is finely illustrated with unusual views of the weird creatures gathered and housed together at the aquarium.

Wilfred—Pa, a man who is continually on a ship is called a sea-dog. Isn't he Gunbusta—That's what they call him, my boy. Wilfred—Well, if he's a sea dog, then a man who is continually on an airship must be a sky-terrier.—Judge.

"How are you getting along with your new motor car?" asked the visitor. "First rate," replied Mrs. Gold-locks with enthusiasm. "We're getting to be regular autocrats."

It was glorious to live this morning; the air was buoyant, the sun was radiant, and the birds were singing. The river front and river men reflected the condition of nature and more noticeably after yesterday. The river made a sharp rise of 2.7 feet, bringing the stage up to 24 feet. This spurt in the river mostly is coming out of the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers aided by local rains. In a day or two it can be told where the rise will stop. The stage March 2, last year was 15 feet and rising. Business at the wharf today was heavy.

A cracked wrist will delay the Harvester several days in Paducah with its big tow. Government inspectors will be here in a day or two to inspect the Harvester. It was first given out that the Harvester had tied up the tow below here to get coal and stores, but it now develops that a crack in one of the shaft wrists was found and it was thought dangerous to continue with the tow. The tow was tied up at Turner's landing and the Harvester came on here. The wrist will be replaced with one being made at Jackson's foundry. If the wrist had broken when the Harvester was in midstream with the big tow, the towboat would have "run through herself," as the river expression is. That is, the piston rods would have reacted back on the engines wrecking them and with possible loss of life. The wheel would have dropped into the river and the boat with the unwieldy tow would have been helplessly adrift in the Ohio. The consequent damage cannot be estimated from the tow and boat bumping into the shore. The inspectors will make a special trip down here to inspect the Harvester in the next few days.

Government inspectors Green and St. John were in the city yesterday on a special trip to inspect the Nellie at Metropolis. The Nellie was ordered out of commission for repairs. Inspector St. John rushed back to St. Louis to be with his sick boy.

Unexpectedly the Scottia returned from the Tennessee river this morning with a tow of five.

A towboat with a big tow of empties, supposed to be the Fulton, passed up last night.

The Kentucky will have a good trip when she leaves for the Tennessee river tonight.

Both Lee line packets will get in tonight or Sunday. The Peters Lee goes up from Memphis to Cincinnati. The Georgia Lee goes down from Cincinnati to Memphis.

The Saltline left St. Louis last night for the Tennessee river and will pass here Sunday morning.

Nothing is in sight to prevent the Butteroff from arriving Sunday night from Nashville and leaving Monday at noon for Clarksville.

The Joe Fowler was the Evansville packet today.

The Dick Fowler had a good trip to Cairo this morning and will return tonight.

Buck Shook, head mate on the Harvester, has a pet goat he picked up at Helena, Ark. The goat has the run of the big towboat and is probably the only mascot of its kind on the rivers.

All the boiler heads and flues for the Dunbar are here now and that packet will get away the last of next week. All the boys are glad for a Ryman line packet to come here for repairs because it brings Engineer James St. John here with his genial disposition.

The congressman, representing the Cairo district, is urging an appropriation to strengthen the levee between Cairo and Mound City, where the Ohio by erosion is eating the bank away, and it is feared will cut across to the Mississippi river isolating Cairo. The Ferd Herold has resumed its trips between Cairo and Memphis after laying off for high water.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon will continue to rise during the next 24 to 36 hours. At Paducah and Cairo will continue to rise during the next several days.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth will continue to rise during the next several days, passing the 8-foot stage at Florence during the next 12 hours.

The Mississippi from below St. Louis to Cairo, no material change during the next 24 hours.

The Wabash at Mt. Carmel, no material change during the next 24 hours.

AN ANTI-SUICIDE BUREAU IN CITY

London Plan to be Carried Out In This Country

Salvation Army Has Saved Three Hundred Unfortunates From Self-Destruction.

VISITORS TO BE CLASSIFIED.

New York, March 2.—Commander Miss Booth, the head of the Salvation Army in the United States, tomorrow will inaugurate anti-suicide bureaus in all the large cities of the country. The plan follows one which has been in operation in London under the direction of Gen. William Booth.

The bureaus are designed to assist and advise any person contemplating suicide.

"The Salvation Army extends an invitation to all distressed persons who are tempted to commit suicide to call at headquarters or if unable to do so write to either of the officers named."

The plan in London, according to the local army officers, proved immediately successful, resulting in the forming of bureaus in various other continental cities. In London, says the announcement, there were numerous requests "for advice, from people who contemplated taking their own lives." These included all classes and conditions of society, from gentlemen wearing silk hats to billingsgate crossing sweepers, and from ladies dressed in furs to the magdalenas of Piccadilly circus, and embraced people of every shade of religious belief.

The results have been astonishing. Within the first eleven days no fewer than 300 applicants were personally interviewed and a large number of others reached by correspondence, with advice and assistance. It was soon discovered necessary to classify the applicants. This was done as follows:

Classification of Unfortunates.

"The sick and incurable, especially those suffering from nervous disease, and who, unable to see anything but suffering and helplessness before them, had reached the point of self-destruction."

"Drunkards and persons addicted to the use of narcotics, and who, while suffering from excesses, were subject to overpowering mental depressions."

"The lonely and bereaved, mostly those brooding over the loss of loved ones and whose only thought was to put a end to their distress by getting out of the world as quickly as possible."

"The unemployed and those financially embarrassed, which proved to be the most numerous class. Most of these were suffering from poverty and want, and had reached the conclusion that life for them was not worth living."

It is on these lines that the work in America has been taken up.

SAYS THIS RELIEVES BACKACHE.

A well-known authority says that Backache is often Nature's danger signal which notifies the sufferer that the kidneys are sick.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to relieve backache and cleanse and build up the kidneys, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

A well-known local druggist is authority that these ingredients are mainly of vegetable extraction and harmless to use, and can be obtained at small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. Those who think they have kidney trouble or suffer with lame back or weak bladder, should give this prescription a trial, as no harm can possibly follow its use, and it is said to do wonders for some people.

THEATRICAL NOTES

THE KENTUCKY.

Tonight—James Boys in Missouri. Monday night and balance of week except Thursday night, the Gertrude Ewing company, matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

Thursday night—"The Gingerbread Man."

"The James Boys in Missouri" Tonight.

"The James Boys in Missouri," undoubtedly one of the largest scenic productions, will be seen in this city tonight and will be the attraction of the year. The big melo-drama has been one of the theatrical successes of the season. The company is a large one and carries all special scenery with which to set each and every act.

Of the Gertrude Ewing company, which comes to The Kentucky theater for one week except Thursday night, commencing Monday, March 4, the Dallas (Texas) Times Herald says:

"Dallas patrons of the play gave Miss Gertrude Ewing a royal reception at the opera house last night on the occasion of her return to this city at the head of her own organization, for a week's engagement."

Ladies will be admitted free on the opening night under usual conditions, and matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

"Gingerbread Man."

Although the management of "The Gingerbread Man," a farcical musical fairytale, which will be seen at The Kentucky theater on Thursday night, does not advertise an "All-Star" cast, it might do so with far more reason than many of the managers who lure the public to shop worn melodrama with this fetching phrase. Mae Phelps, who plays Jack Horner, was prima donna of "The Prince of Pilsen" when this piece scored its sensational hit in New York three or four years ago; Nellie Lynch, who enacts the rôle of Margery Daw, was featured in the west with "The Tenderfoot"; Homer Lind exhibited his splendid baritone voice with Savage's English Opera company; Ross Snow, who was featured as the fairy queen in the well remembered production of "Jack and the Beanstalk"; Ben Grinnell, who was principal comedian at the New York Hippodrome, and Eddie Redway, who was featured in "Smiling Island."

William Allen White's Comparison of New York and the Small Town.

William Allen White, the famous Kansas editor and novelist, compares his native Empanola—with New York City in the January number of the American Magazine. He tells how funerals and weddings are conducted in both places. He talks about the New York rich and the "cut glass" circles in Empanola. He says that New York is "the eating place on the continent," and that there are no nine o'clock jobs in Empanola. The article reveals Mr. White's wonderful powers of observation and whimsical expression better than any piece of writing he has ever done. As is his custom, Mr. White mingles sound sense with his wit. He concludes:

"We are fairly close to the throne in Kansas—and in the West generally. The high priests of politics do not impress us. Two United States Senators were in Empanola last fall, and both went wagging across the town to the depot, carrying their own valises. We refuse to get out the Second Regiment Band for anything less than a Cabinet officer. We are 'gentlemen unafraid' and a few years ago, when a Vice-President came through town, making speeches at end of a railroad train, he pumped in vain for applause by mentioning two of the town's dignitaries. He couldn't fool us; we knew them both. The town gave one a beautiful funeral, and would be happy to do the same service for the other at any time reasonably soon. For, although we live among elm trees, on wide, velvet lawns, in paved streets, and although we have three free public libraries in town, and although we have one four-story sky-scraper, the gentlemen who fifty years ago debated the slavery question through the brush of eastern Kansas, with Colt's Ready Reckoner as their parliamentary guide, are still able to bring in a considerable minority report. And while murder is regarded as such bad form that there has been no crime of violence in the town for over a decade, a hotly contested primary in the Fourth Ward furnishes all the sportive excitement required by any full-blooded able-bodied man whose appetite for fun has not been sated by a plethora of actual homicide. For the first primary or two a President of the United States living in Empanola might have his way in a Fourth Ward primary, but at the third if he got behind the wrong candidate for sheriff, the President would have to take his chances, and nothing would afford Way and Cagney and Clark and Peach and McCoy and the Haynes boys more joy

Fill Out Your Face

The old saying "Your face is your fortune" contains more truth than poetry. The man with well rounded face and adequate flesh is fortunate in more ways than one. He is more successful because people like to deal—like to associate with healthy robust looking men. He is healthier because he has a surplus of flesh upon which to draw.

One well known authority asserts that a man or woman having a normal quantity of flesh—or gaining flesh, need have no fear of disease. That is why every person who is underweight should be deeply interested in the latest discovery of the Battle Creek food experts. It means that they can now gain flesh without risking one cent in case of failure. For years these specialists, have been experimenting—proving testing. The result of their labors is the food PEPTOL—the new flesh builder.

PEPTOL is simply concentrated fat and starch, the two most important makers of flesh. It is so prepared that it assimilates immediately without taxing the digestive organs. It increases the appetite and aids assimilation of other foods. It adds flesh at the rate of from 2 to 6 pounds a week. This has been proven in numerous cases. There is no good reason why it will not do as much for you. We absolutely guarantee that PEPTOL will add materially to your weight in one month or it will not cost you a cent. In case it fails we will refund the full purchase price on your word alone. Sign the coupon and take to your druggist today.

than to bounce a President in a political blanket at some primary, when his heart was set on handling the delegation to the convention—if they suspected he was merely playing the game.

"But probably this is only the spirit of '76; it is the American spirit. That spirit of independence—is the bond that binds this American nation together; it runs through the townships, the counties, the states, and is dominant in the nation. It is in New York, just as it is in Empanola. And it is tempered in all men through all the nation, by that kindness that comes to men who have known the world in the rough at first hand, the real gentility that is bred in those who by the sweat of their brows eat their bread, and know how hard a thing life is when one faces it alone. Hence our institutions for mutual help in the cities—our great benevolent societies distributing God's mercy upon the poor; hence in the country, in Empanola, the social sympathy, the touch of nature always found among neighbors or every class and clique that 'makes us wondrous kind.'"

At the present moment the countries of Europe are spending on their armies and navies as much as $4,000,000 a day.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by overwork, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in the most potent, invigorating, restorative, strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and to render the ordeal comparatively easy and painless.

It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, ulceration, prolapsus, anteversion, retroversion, or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts, will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and, generally, a permanent cure, by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native, medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients are printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of all woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets and Antiseptic Suppositories may also be used with great advantage conjointly with the use of the "Favorite Prescription" in all cases of ulceration, and in pelvic catarrh. They cost only 25 cents a box each, at drug stores or, sent by mail, post-paid on receipt of price in stamps by Dr. Pierce whose address is given below.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

Ask any dealer for the oldest bottled in bond whiskey he has in stock and you will get either EARLY TIMES or JACK BEAM. It's eight summers old.

MARCH.

Hearse the horns of the wind are braying
Over the field of the rifted sky;
Ghostly gray in their rout dismay-
ing,
Wrecks of the cloud-rack hurry by.

Sudden the sun through the press is breaking,
Home aloft in his burnished car,
Ruthless, unerring, his foes o'er taking,
Golden arrows he drives afar.

Swift are his shafts, and his wrath is burning,
Snow-drifts shrink that are white with fear;
Now is her lord to the earth return-
ing,
Now is the month of the war-god here.

Announcements.

Mrs. Reuben Loeb will receive on Monday afternoon from three to five o'clock at her home on Broadway, in honor of Mrs. Sydney Loeb, the bride of her son. Mr. and Mrs. Loeb have just returned from an extended eastern bridal trip.

The Delphic club will meet on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Carnegie library. The regular program will be omitted. The officers for the next year will be selected and the course of study decided.

The concert given recently at the 3rd street Methodist church under the direction of Mrs. Peter Fields, will be repeated on Friday evening at the Broadway Methodist church for the Home Mission Societies of the Bro-way and Trimble street Methodist churches.

The Ka'osophic club will meet on Friday morning at 10 o'clock with Miss Kathleen Whitefield at her home on Kentucky avenue and Seventh street.

The Paducah Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Miss Adine Morton, 612 Broadway. Mrs. Luke Russell will have a paper on "The Confederate Navy" and Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis on Admiral Semmes, of the Confederacy. There will be a musical program in addition.

The Matinee Musical club will have its regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the Parish House of Grace Episcopal church. Mrs. David G. Murrell and Miss Virginia Newell are the leaders. The French composer Saint-Saens and Berlioz are the studies.

The Crescendo club will meet on Thursday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock with Miss Virginia Newell at her studio on North 7th street.

The Woman's club will meet in regular session on Thursday afternoon at the Parish House of Grace Episcopal church. The business meeting will be held promptly at 2 o'clock and the members are asked to take notice that the business sessions will begin always at 2 p. m. The open meeting is in charge of the Art department, Miss Anna Webb, chairman, and a delightful program will be presented. Miss Webb will give "Madonna in Art," Miss Alice Compton, the "Saint and Angel in Art," Miss Julia Scott will sing Handel's "Angel Sweetly Sing" and Mrs. David Flournoy will render the "Ave Maria" from Cavalleria Rusticana.

Richardson-Jones Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Kate Lee Richardson to Mr. Oscar Bertrand Jones, of San Bernardino, Cal., will take place on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church. The Rev. Calvin Thompson, D. D. will perform the ceremony. It will be a quiet church wedding. No invitations have been issued at all in the city, where Miss Richardson and Mr. Jones have a wide circle of friends.

The only attendants will be the ushers: Messrs. Frank Hecker, of St. Louis; Eugene Richardson, Pauline, W. W. Rogers. Miss Courtie Pur-E. Stutz, J. E. Rogers, Durward Suter will play the wedding march. The bride will wear a stylish tailored coat suit of dark blue with hat and gloves to match.

The couple will leave at noon for St. Louis and after a several days' visit there they will go direct to Los Angeles. They will spend some time in seeing points of interest about Los Angeles and will be at home in San Bernardino after March 15.

Among the out-of-town guests who will be present for the wedding are: Mrs. Robert Carroll and Miss Helene Carroll of St. Louis; Mr. Frank H. Hecker of St. Louis; Mr. Frank H. Underwood of Owensboro; Mrs. Joseph Altman, of Cairo.

Linen Shower for Bride-Elect.
Miss Kate Richardson, a bride of the coming week, was the guest of honor at a pretty linen shower on Friday evening. Miss Ruby Vance, of 1236 West Jefferson street, was the hostess, entertaining the Phila-thea club of the First Baptist church, of which Miss Richardson is a popu-lar member. The house was prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and white. Across the dining room was stretched a "clothes line" of white ribbons on which were hung various pretty and useful gifts. A table made from linen. Miss Richardson was presented with a clothes basket and told "to gather them in." Another enjoyable feature was souvenirs from the bride-elect, who had been asked to bring out collars, handkerchiefs, belts, etc., that she had discarded. These were carefully wrapped by the hostess and numbered. When the number was drawn by the guests Miss Richardson was required to tell why the article was especially appropriate to the recipient, which created much amusement by the incongruity.

A pretty bracelet from the Phila-thea club was presented to Miss Richardson with a graceful speech by Miss Vance and accepted in a happy reply.

Delightful ices and cakes were served in the color motif of white and pink. Miss Cora Richardson presided at a prettily arranged punch table, and the health of the bride and groom elect was toasted.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Debut, Mrs. J. M. Walton, Mrs. Rash, Mrs. Cozy; Misses Kate Richardson, Cora Richardson, Ella Patterson, Ella Bryan, Carol Holland, Orance Thurman, Ollie Wilson, Minnie Barksdale, Mattie Beard, Ruby Vance; Messrs. Oscar B. Jones, John Hardy, W. P. Hardy, Charles Richardson, W. W. Rogers, J. E. Rogers, J. M. Miller, Russell Long, Moore, Durward Sutton, Charles Ackerman, J. M. Hagam.

D. A. R. Chapter.

Mrs. David G. Murrell was hostess of the Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution on Friday afternoon at her home on Broadway. It was an especially large and pleasant meeting and Mrs. W. T. Bolling was a guest of the chapter.

The response to roll call were made with current events of D. A. R. interest. Five new members were added to the chapter: Mrs. James Baldwin, Mrs. Kittle Wilks, Mrs. Luke Russell, Mrs. David VanCulin and Miss Anne Sherrill Baird. The most important items of the business session related to the Flower Carnival and the civic work of establishing drinking fountains over the city, which the chapter has inaugurated.

In response to a petition to the general council to establish fountains the finance committee agreed to place three small fountains under D. A. R. direction in different parts of the city. The following committee from the chapter was selected to confer with the city engineer, Mr. L. A. Washington, in selecting the points of location: Mrs. C. H. Chamblin, Dr. Della Caldwell, Mrs. Claude Russell. It was announced that the tickets for the Flower Carnival would be on sale in two weeks.

An attractive musical and literary program followed the business session. Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells gave very ably the essential points distinguishing the "Three Societies, Daughters of the Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution and Colonial Dames," which are not generally known. Mrs. C. H. Chamblin told of the "Historical Events of March." Music was rendered by Mrs. D. G. Murrell and Mrs. George B. Hart. A delightful luncheon was served, one course of which was strawberries from the Louisiana plantation of the hostess, from which she had just returned.

Paducah's Flower Carnival.

Already Easter is being anticipated and much of the social interest for it is centered in the Flower Carnival which will take place on Friday of the week and will be a most beautiful and elaborate event. It is especially appropriate that the two should come together, both suggestion of flowers beauty and spring-time.

As the time draws nearer the interest and enthusiasm in the Flower Carnival become even more pronounced. The dances which are being rehearsed each week are graceful and effective and with the pretty flower costumes will delight the most sated eye. The carnival has been given in a number of Southern cities with the most pronounced success. A feature that was used with especial effect in El Paso, Texas, and that will be repeated here, was an attractive booth in the theater with pretty girls in patriotic costumes to sell the candy and flowers.

The cause for which the Carnival is given, the Public Fountain fund, should insure a capacity house.

Not Without Honor in His Own City.

In anticipation of the coming of Prof. S. H. Clark, of the University of Chicago to Paducah on March 20, there is quite a demand for Stephen Phillips' "Ulysses" at the Carnegie library and elsewhere, proving that there is keen interest felt in the advent of so notable a man and reader to our city.

A delightful and interesting Chicago woman now visiting in Paducah, Mrs. Samuel H. Williams, who is the guest of her sister Mrs. John W. Keller, of West Broadway, is most enthusiastic in praise of Prof. Clark and ranks him as the foremost and favorite speaker of all that appear before the several Chicago clubs to which she belongs. He has all the charm which goes to make the delightful speaker and reader, voice, personality and magnetic force. Paducah will owe much to the Woman's club for introducing him here.

Luncheon and Box Party on Tuesday Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wallerstein entertained with a delightful after-theater luncheon on Tuesday evening at their home on North 4th street in honor of Miss Alice Dovey, Mr. David Andradra and Mr. W. H. Pickets, of the "Vanderbilt Cup" company. Miss Dovey and Mr. Andradra sang very effectively at the performance of the "Vanderbilt Cup" musical comedy that evening at the Kentucky theater.

Mr. Herbert Wallerstein's latest compositions "Mister Star" and "When?" The luncheon was a charmingly appointed affair in six courses. The table decorations were white and green, the center-piece being a pretty arrangement of white carnations and ferns. The color-motif was emphasized throughout the courses. The guests included: Mr. Herbert Wallerstein's box party, who were: Miss Carrie Well, of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Olga List, Miss Lula Reed, Mr. McVain Wallerstein and Mr. J. K. Hughes; the following members of the "Vanderbilt Cup" company: Miss Alice Dovey; Messrs. David Andradra, W. H. Pickets, Arthur Hoyt, Eddie Ball, and Dr. and Mrs. Victor Voris; Miss Ethel Brooks, Mr. Edwin J. Paxton, Mr. Milton Wallerstein.

Eastern Star Reception.

The Esther Chapter Eastern Star gave a pleasant reception Tuesday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock at the lodge rooms of the Fraternity building, in compliment to Mrs. Sarah Terry of Clarkson, Ky., grand worthy matron of Kentucky. Mrs. Terry is making her official tour of the state and was here to inspect the Paducah chapter.

The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns, palms and white carnations in a color-motif of white and green. Light refreshments were served, the table was an effective setting of white and green. A large punch bowl surrounded by ferns was in the center and carnations and ferns at each end. Assisting in receiving the guests were the following members of the Esther Chapter: Mrs. Harry Johnston, assistant grand matron of the State; Mrs. Anna Wright, grand worthy matron of Esther Chapter; Mrs. Gideon, assistant grand matron of the Eastern Chapter; Mr. Edgar Whittemore, worthy patron of the Chapter; Mesdames, Eugenia Lewis Keller, C. H. Chamblin, I. O. Walker, and Charles Holliday.

Fancy Dress Ball.

The children of the Temple Israel Sunday school celebrated the Feast of Purim with a fancy dress ball on Thursday evening at the Standard club rooms. It was a pretty scene. The rooms were effectively decorated in a color-scheme of green and white and the costumes were striking and artistic. The prizes for the girl's costume went to Miss Rosa Klein who represented a violet girl. Master Joseph Rosenthal, as a crip-ple Italian organ grinder, received the boy's prize. Master James Fried-

Matinee Musical Club.

The Matinee Musical club had a very delightful Chaminade of Massenet afternoon on Wednesday at the Parish House of Grace Episcopal church. Mrs. Victor Voris was the leader and the program was an especially attractive one. Sketches of the musicians were given by Mrs. Edwin Rivers. Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells read a paper on "The Wandering Musicians of Nations." The musical numbers were rendered by: Mrs. James Welle, Mrs. Lela W. Lewis, Mrs. George B. Hart, Mrs. David Flournoy; Misses Julia Scott, Mamie Dryfuss, Anne Bradshaw, Adah Brazelton, Mr. Edward Skelton, Mr. Richard Scott.

Kalosophic Club.

A very delightful meeting of the Ka'osophic club was held on Friday morning with Miss Kathleen Whitefield at her home on Kentucky avenue. "Current Topics" was presented by Mrs. Edward H. Bringham. Miss Elizabeth Sinnott discussed "The 19th Century Drama and Victor Hugo." Miss Caroline Sowell reviewed "Dumas the Younger and Camille."

Beginning next week in addition to the regular program a play will be discussed, each member taking an act, Rosstrand's L'Aiglon will be taken next Friday.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic club met on Tuesday morning at the Carnegie library. The program was a double one and was most interestingly featured. "The Expulsion of the Moriscos" was discussed by Mrs. W. W. Powell. Mrs. Frank L. Scott gave a character sketch of "Don Juan of Austria." "Aranjuez" was discussed by Mrs. George C. Wallace. Miss Kathleen Whitefield told of "Cordova—the bride of Andalusia." "The Mosque of Cordova" was sketched by Mrs. David A. Yeiser.

Surprise Tacky Party.

Miss Henrietta Earnhardt was pleasantly surprised by a number of her little friends on Tuesday evening with a tacky party. The prizes for the tackiest costumes were won by

We Must Reckon With the Women.

"It is, of course, apparent, however unwelcome the fact may be, that from now on women will always have to be reckoned with politically," writes Olivia Howard Dunbar, in "The World's Half Citizens," in the March Everybody's. "In our own country this particular line of advance has, probably, been slowest. This is because American men are incorrigibly romantic, even sentimental, and in the very face of multitudes of women workers still cling desperately to the bric-a-brac ideal of womanhood. It has nevertheless come about that women now enjoy full political rights in four States: Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho, and Utah. In Kansas they have the privilege of municipal suffrage. Seventeen States allow women to vote at elections for school officers, and in Montana, Iowa, Louisiana, and New York women have taxpaying suffrage. The further extension of these privileges is regarded as inevitable. It is natural that spirited attempts should have been made to show that women do not make adequate or wise use of their political power, but this cannot be said to have been proved. They cannot at least be reproached with allowing the men of their families to dictate their votes. Whether wisely or not, they appear to have voted honestly, which is quite as much as can be said of the average male voter. More than this; Colorado is the State where the exercise of political rights by women has attracted the most attention. In this State, in 1903, women voted in larger relative proportion than men, which is an eloquent fact. It is also stated that the enfranchisement of women in Colorado has resulted in a long list of important reforms, of which improvements in the child-labor laws, the making of mothers coequal guardians of their children, the raising of the age of consent, and legislation exacting greater care for feeble-minded children and for animals are only typical. The women vote as a matter of course (and very often contrary to the vote of the men of their families,) and no bother whatever is made we are told, about the perils of a woman's walking to the voting-booth or the mental strain of dropping her ballot, or the injury to her womanhood that the whole proceeding involves."

This laxative makes strength

Most physics you have taken no doubt have left you weak. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an exception, because, while it is a laxative, it is at the same time one of the greatest stomach tonics ever compounded.

A physic which leaves you weak is dangerous, because it soon becomes necessary for you to take a drug of some kind before the bowels can be induced to act properly.

When this condition is reached, the patient has lost his strength and may become the victim of all sorts of stomach disorders.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin contains a great deal of pepsin, as its name indicates, and so strengthens the weakest stomach that it can properly and voluntarily perform all its functions.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is pleasant to take and it never causes griping or pains of any sort, and in all cases of stomach disorder is undoubtedly the finest preparation known.

All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

Money back if it doesn't satisfy.

Daily Thought.

"Temperate speech and judicious silence are two hard arguments to answer."

THE JO THAT WAS, AND IS

And, so, Jo Blackburn has been seduced.

What a host of memories does the appointment of the fiery old partisan to a berth under the Republican administration call up! What a vocabulary of invective is his! Beg pardon, —was his; for he probably would deny authorship, should anyone be so unthoughtful of his sensitive nature as to allude to some of the things Senator Blackburn has said about Republicans. But those things were meant for Kentucky consumption. Jo probably would like for the interstate commerce commission to put an embargo on some of his utterances here at home.

No one was ever more uncompromising and uncharitable in his attacks on the opposing party than Jo Blackburn. His bitter partisanship, his intense loyalty to Democracy—was his sole qualification for political leadership, and well did he maintain his reputation for the quality of his Democracy in the heyday of his career, when he thought he would go on serving his constituents in the senate until death, stronger than Kentucky Democracy, should depose him. But Democracy proved less true to Jo Blackburn than Jo Blackburn did to Democracy. Perhaps, that is why Jo capitulated.

Anyway, we remember that in Jo's speeches he drew a picture of Republicanism that should have barred any self-respecting man from holding office under a Republican administration, if he believed the picture true. But there is where the dual personality of Jo Blackburn came to his rescue. Those who know Jo Blackburn, love him, and they pay no attention to what Jo Blackburn says. The latter observation is obvious. Jo Blackburn is outspoken. That is, one Jo is. The other Jo—the Jo his friends know—spends most of his time denying what the first Jo has said. When Jo gets mad and vents his spleen on some influential Democratic colleague and a Washington correspondent wires a long string of expletives with quotation marks around them to his paper, the managing editor smiles and makes arrangements to handle another Washington story by mail, in which Jo Blackburn pours the vials of his wrath on the correspondent, whom he designates as a venomous liar. It seems mighty fine to us here in Kentucky, who know what Jo Blackburn has said and done in the past in the name of party, to see the Republican administration forgetting his wicked words and his violent partisanship, and appointing him to a $10,000 berth, when his own party at home has rejected him. Maybe, Jo, too, has forgotten his wicked words and his violent partisanship. Maybe, in his later life he has realized the futility of mere party politics; has awakened to the truth that Republicans can be just as honest and just as intelligently honest as Democrats; and unquestionably, he sees now that the Republicans are infinitely more faithful to their own.

There is a lesson in the story of Jo Blackburn for Kentucky Democrats. Under the sway of his captivating personality they have been led to drink in his bitter words until their blood has turned to gall. What part Jo Blackburn and politicians of his ilk have played in the tragedies of Kentucky politics, history will inform future generations; but meanwhile, it will be well for Democrats to remember, that when the politicians, who feed their ambitions on hatred of Republicans, meet their Beckhams, as some day they all must, they may change their views on party regularity, for—say—$10,000 a year.

Louisville merchants are coming out boldly in a position regarding horse racing, that heretofore has not been touched upon. They demand that the 60 day meets of the two race tracks be reduced to 15 days, because the money gambled away at the tracks is diverted from legitimate channels of local trade. This objection to racing no doubt will have more influence than all the protests hurled against the sin of gambling from a purely moral standpoint. After all, the talk that certain licensed departures from the path of rectitude help a town, is all bosh and evil has received another crushing blow in its solar plexus. The argument has been used that the racing meets aid the town by bringing large crowds there, and that gambling is a sine qua non, of the race track. There is some truth in the argument, so far as attracting visitors is concerned, but the merchants evidently think that the benefit is more than offset by the damage to business when the meet is prolonged unreasonably. The stand of the merchants is significant when we consider the fact, that the stand for emperance among its employees assumed by the Pennsylvania railroad has done more for the cause of temperance than any other one element in recent years. Reforms come when conditions become unbearable, and worldly interests are of more pressing influence than moral considerations.

Paducah and western Kentucky have a friend on the state board of agriculture and immigration in the person of G. N. McGrew, of Bayou, Livingston county, whose good work on the executive committee of the state institute secured for McCracken county the western district institute last fall. The Paducah Commercial club sent a letter strongly endorsing his candidacy for the place, and assisted in winning the fight for him; but Mr. McGrew will not feel indebted in any way to the McCracken county institute, not one of the delegates of which attended the state institute this week, to assist Mr. McGrew. It wasn't very kind after all he had done for this county.

In Louisville the health department is posting signs on the streets, calling attention to the anti-spitting ordinance. That is all that is needed. Some people simply are not raised properly and do not know any better than to eject great gobs of tobacco from their mouths to the sidewalk. The distance from the middle of the sidewalk to the curb is so trifling that almost any gentleman can restrain his impulse to expectorate while traversing the few intervening steps. Let us try the Louisville experiment in Paducah.

Neither carelessness nor bad management was responsible for the wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad near Johnstown, Pa., in which half a dozen lives were lost. It was just an experiment, and those half dozen lives were nobly sacrificed to test the efficiency of steel ties, so it is said. It was rather a costly experiment but the friends and relatives of the victims may find comfort in the thought that their deaths may save the general adoption of steel ties and thus prevent tragedies of even grimmer horror.

That must have been a crash when the bottom fell out of the egg market yesterday, and eggs broke from 22 to 17.

What Osteopathy Will Do.

There are but few people who have not heard of Osteopathy, also of some of its achievements. But there are far too many who have accredited it with being good for only those conditions from which they have been cured, or which have come under their observation. Not infrequently there is mutual surprise when one who was cured of rheumatism meets another who has been cured of asthma or constipation. This is a homely, but very true illustration.

Personally, I have cured chronic cases of constipation, rheumatism, asthma, nervousness, neuralgia and headaches for people whom you know well, and the value of the Osteopathic treatment is but coming generally known in Paducah, as it should be.

I should like to talk with you at any time about your particular case, and know I can cite you to some of your friends who will attest to what the treatment has done for them in similar diseases. Come to my office, 516 Broadway, or phone 1407 any time from 9 to 12 or 2 to 5 p. m.

PETITION FOR ORDER AND NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE.

In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Kentucky.

In the Matter of

ERNEST REHKOPF,

Bankrupt.

In Bankruptcy.

At Paducah, in said Western District aforesaid, on this 15th day of February, 1907.

Comes A. E. Boyd, trustee of the aforesaid bankrupt, and respectfully represents that it would be to the benefit of said bankrupt estate that certain tracts and parcels of real estate belonging thereto, to-wit:

Being a lot of ground conveyed to the said E. Rehkopf and M. R. Galbreath by M. S. Johnson and W. B. Johnson of date 17th of May, 1877, recorded in Deed Book "Z", page 220, in McCracken County Court Clerk's office, and described in the deed of division of the lands and lots situated in Paducah, Kentucky, between the heirs of B. Small, deceased, recorded in Deed Book "S", page 551, in the McCracken County Court Clerk's office, as lots Nos. 1 and 2, and allotted in said division in Deed Book "S", page 551, in the McCracken County Court Clerk's office, as lot No. 21, and designated as such on the map filed on record in the McCracken County Court Clerk's office by Warren Thornberry, surveyor, and also known as the Barbee building, bought by R. O. Woolfolk from E. T. Bullock, commissioner, contains 4 acres and 10 poles, more or less, with buildings, etc., thereon, being the same property conveyed to Rehkopf and Galbreath by E. B. Jones, special commissioner, recorded in Commissioner's Deed Book No. 1, page 31, in the McCracken County Court Clerk's office and afterwards deeded by Galbreath to said Rehkopf. Which property is appraised at $8,000.00.

Also another lot of ground on the northeast corner of said Fifth and Washington streets, formerly known as Chestnut street; in Paducah, commencing at the northeast corner of said Fifth and Washington streets; thence with the north line of Washington street towards the river 47 1/2 feet to the line of Mrs. O. B. Starks' residence; thence at right angles and towards Kentucky avenue, formerly Court street, 117 feet and 3 inches to the lot of ground known as the John Orr lot; thence at right angles and to Fifth street, formerly Chestnut street, 47 1/2 feet; thence at right angles and with said Fifth street 117 feet and 3 inches to Washington street, the beginning point, being part of the same property deeded by I. D. Wilcox and J. W. Bloomfield to E. Rehkopf, recorded in Book 37, page 91. Said parcel of land being appraised at $3,500.00.

Also the following described lot or parcel of land situated in McCracken county, Kentucky, and known as a lot of land on the southeast side of Island creek on the Tennessee river, as lot No. 21, and designated as such on the map filed on record in the McCracken County Court Clerk's office by Warren Thornberry, surveyor, and also known as the Barbee building, bought by R. O. Woolfolk from E. T. Bullock, commissioner, contains 4 acres and 10 poles, more or less, with buildings, etc., thereon, being the same property conveyed to Rehkopf and Galbreath by E. B. Jones, special commissioner, recorded in Commissioner's Deed Book No. 1, page 31, in the McCracken County Court Clerk's office and afterwards deeded by Galbreath to said Rehkopf. Which property is appraised at $14,000.00.

Beginning at a stake on the east side of Meyer street in the lower corner of lot No. 21; thence towards the Tennessee river with a line dividing lots Nos. 20 and 21, 12 feet to a stake; thence up the Tennessee river parallel with Meyers street to a stake in the line dividing lots Nos. 21 and 22; thence with said line 12 feet to a stake in Meyers street; thence down and with Meyers street to the beginning, being the property conveyed to the Chicago, St. Louis & New Orleans Railway Co. by E. Rehkopf, recorded in Deed Book 72, page 494, in the Clerk's office of the McCracken County Court.

Also the following lot of land situated in said city of Paducah, on Market street, formerly, now Second street, and being lot No. 89, in block 10, old town of Paducah, Kentucky, and bounded as follows:

Beginning at a stake 1 inch from the corner of said lot 89 nearest Broadway on Second street; thence with said line of said lot on 2nd street, 19 feet, 2 1/2 in. to stake on the corner of said lot; thence at right angles and on the back line of said lot in the direction to Broadway street 19 feet, 2 1/2 in. to a corner stake; thence at right angles to the beginning corner, and being the same lot deeded to said E. Rehkopf by W. S. Norton, and recorded in Deed Book "F", page 231, McCracken County Court Clerk's office.

Also the following described lot of land being in the city of Paducah, Kentucky, being a part of lot No. 89 in block 10, old town of Paducah, commencing at a stake what was formerly Market street, now South Second street, at the lower corner of what was formerly Rodney Case's; thence down said Second street 19 feet, 2 1/2 inches to a stake; thence at right angles to the back line of said lot; thence with said back line of said lot 19 feet, 2 1/2 inches to a stake; thence at right angles to the back line of said lot to South Second street, the beginning corner, being the same property deeded by Peter Vernia and wife to said E. Rehkopf, and recorded in Deed Book 26, page 599, McCracken County Court Clerk's office.

Also the following lot of land situated in Paducah, Kentucky, lying on South Second street, formerly Market street, being a part of lot 89, block 10, old town of Paducah, Kentucky, commencing at the upper or southeast corner of lot now owned by E. Rehkopf, conveyed to him by Peter Vernia and wife; thence up Second street 19 feet, 5 inches, more or less, and to the southeast corner of the said lot, and being the lot formerly owned by Guy B. Case and Calvin D. Case and Macy C. Minor, and deeded by them to said E. Rehkopf, and which is recorded in Deed Book 37, page 598, in the office of McCracken County Court Clerk; thence westwardly and to the back line of said lot 19 feet, 2 1/2 inches to a stake; thence at right angles to the back line of said lot 19 feet, 2 1/2 inches, and to the lot of ground now owned by E. Rehkopf, conveyed to him by said Peter Vernia and wife; thence with said line of E. Rehkopf lot to Second street, the beginning corner, and being the same lot on said Second street owned by said Rodney Case, at the time of his death. Said 3 parcels of land being appraised at $16,000.00.

Also a certain lot lying and being in the city of Paducah, McCracken county, Kentucky, and designated as the 1/4 part of lot No. 182 on Washington street, in the first addition to the town of Paducah, and bounded as follows:

Beginning at the southeast corner of said lot on the street running out from the river, being Washington street, corner to Rodney Case's lot; thence with said back line of said lot 173 feet to the line of said lot; thence at right angles and towards David Ballington, and Jane, his wife, to the grantor herein, Archibald Lovelace; thence back at right angles with the line of said Archibald Lovelace 173 feet to the line of said lot; thence toward the river 43 feet and 3 inches to said Case's corner; thence to the beginning.

Also 1/4 part of lot No. 182 in First addition to the town of Paducah, Kentucky, McCracken county, and being on Washington street and bounded as follows:

Beginning at a stake on Washington street towards the river 43 feet, 3 inches to a stake corner, to a lot above described; thence with said line of said lot 173 feet to the line of said lot; thence from the river parallel with the first line 43 feet, 3 in. to Mary E. Dillehaney's corner; now J. D. Kelley's; thence to the beginning. Said lot fronting 86 feet and 6 inches on Washington street and running back towards Kentucky avenue 173 feet. Said parcel of land being appraised at $7,000.00.

Also a certain lot of ground lying and being in the city of Paducah, McCracken county, Kentucky, and beginning at a point on 5th street 117 feet and 3 inches from the N. E. corner of Washington and 5th streets; thence towards Kentucky avenue fronting on Fifth street, 55 feet and 9 inches; thence at right angles towards 4th street, 86 feet and 7 1/2 in.; thence at right angles towards Washington street, 55 feet and 9 inches; thence at right angles towards Fifth street, parallel with Washington street 86 feet and 7 1/2 inches to the beginning corner. Said parcel of land being appraised at $2,000.00.

Should be sold at the court house door at public outcry in lots or parcels as described herein, and upon the terms and conditions as follows:

One-third of the purchase price of said real estate to be for cash in hand paid, one-third to be secured by approved bond payable in three months after date of sale to the trustee herein, and the remaining one-third to be secured by approved bond payable to the trustee in six months from date of sale.

The trustee, A. E. Boyd, would further represent that it is to the best interest of the bankrupt estate herein that the personal property set forth and described in the appraisers' report filed in this court on the 14th day of February, 1907, be sold at public auction at the place where said property is now located, to-wit:

Collar-shop on Kentucky avenue, between Third and Fourth street, in Paducah, Kentucky, and the tanyard in Mechanicburg, Paducah, Ky.

Wherefore, he prays that a hearing be had on this petition and that he may be authorized to make sale at public auction of both the real and personal property on the conditions herein set forth.

A. E. BOYD, Trustee.

ORDER.

The foregoing petition having been duly filed, and having come on for a hearing before me, of which hearing ten days notice was given by mail to creditors of said bankrupt, now, after due hearing, no adverse interest being represented thereat, it is ordered that said trustee be authorized to sell the portion of the bankrupt's personal and real estate specified in the foregoing petition, by auction, keeping an accurate account of the property sold, and of each lot or parcel thereof, and the price received therefor and to whom sold; which account he shall file at once with the referee.

The personal property, as set forth in the report of appraisal, referred to in the foregoing petition, consists chiefly of the following articles: 1 power collar block, 1 electric motor, 6 Fogthong stuffing machines, 1 Randall short stuffing machine, 4 sewing machines, stock and material in work, collar patterns, 38 stamping dies, 1 lot of patent collar fasteners, 1 dash leather, 1 Randall long straw stuffing machine, 1 electric generator, 2 staple machines, 70 tons of rye straw, 1 wheat drill, shafting, pulleys and belt in shopping department, 1 power hammer, shafting, pulleys and belt in cutting department, and other appliances and machinery used in the leather and tanning business, and all the other personal property of the bankrupt, except exemptions, all of which personal property is situated in Paducah, Ky. The trustee will sell said personal property for cash, at the tanyard in Mechanicburg, Paducah, Kentucky, and in lots or parcels as he may deem best, and at the time hereinafter fixed for the sale of the real property.

The trustee shall sell said real estate for one-third cash and the remainder on a credit of three and six months, at the county court house door in Paducah, Ky., on the first Monday in April, 1907, after notice thereof posted at the county court house in Paducah, and at least four other public places in Paducah, and by publication of said notice in the Paducah Evening Sun once a week for at least four weeks prior to said sale, and he shall take from the purchaser bond with good and approved surety for the unpaid purchase money, payable to himself as such trustee; and a lien hereby ordered to be retained upon said real estate to further secure the payment of the unpaid purchase money provided for in said bond.

Witness my hand this 1st day of March, 1907.

EMMETT W. BAGBY,
Referee in Bankruptcy.

TRUSTEE'S NOTICE OF SALE.

Pursuant to the foregoing order of sale, in the above entitled cause, I shall, on the first Monday in April, 1907, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, all the foregoing described property at the county court house door in Paducah, Ky. The personal property I shall sell for cash, and the real property for one-third cash and the remainder on three and six month's time, as provided in said order.

Witness my hand this 1st day of March, 1907.

A. E. BOYD, Trustee for Ernest Rehkopf, Bankrupt.

LOVED HIS OLD APARTMENT

New Jersey Bachelor Killed Himself in Preference to Living Elsewhere

Trenton, N. J.—Alfred M. Livingston, a wealthy bachelor of Trenton's fashionable society, committed suicide with a revolver, because of ill health and despondency over the fact that he was about to lose his bachelor apartments.

Mrs. Ale's boarding house, in which he had his apartments, was recently sold to the board of trade, to be converted into a business man's club house, and Mr. Livingston had been notified to find apartments elsewhere.

It is supposed that he had a sentimental attachment for the place, where he had rooms for many years.

It appears that Mr. Livingston was in a melancholy state of mind for some days. After taking some of the valuables from his private box in the vault of the Trenton Trust and Safe Deposit Company, he remarked for years. He had some distant relatives living in New York. His benefactions have been repeatedly felt by Trenton's charitable institutions. He was a great traveler, having crossed the ocean more than twenty-five times, usually taking with him one of a number of boys.

NO SUCCESS

HAS CROWNED EFFORTS OF PEOPLE DRAGGING RIVER.

Rear Wheels and Four Bags of Oats Belonging to Samuel Farmer Are Recovered.

Thirty more pounds of dynamite were taken to Clark's river today to be used in the work of rescuing the body of Samuel Farmer, of Benton, supposed to have been drowned in that river while trying to cross the stream last week at McCoy's ford fifteen miles from Paducah. Three separate attempts to recover the body by blasting and dragging have failed.

The work of rescue was delayed by rains swelling the river and yesterday the rescuers resumed their labors without success. The rear wheels of Farmer's wagon with two sacks of oats were recovered a few rods below the ford, giving additional evidence that the unfortunate man was drowned.

William J. Gilbert, the Illinois Central carman, returned yesterday from McCoy ford after assisting the rescuers in their work. Citizens of Benton have made up a purse of $100 and presented it to Mrs. Farmer.

Belgium's Business Activity.

In "A King in Business," in the November Everybody's, Robert E. Park says of King Leopold:

"Other monarchs have had more or less illicit relations with the stock market. Gossip says that half the fortunes of Europe are indirectly allied with the Standard Oil Company. But Leopold has gone openly into the money markets; he has put himself at the head of the Belgian group of financiers and led the crusade for foreign concessions.

"At the present time Belgium has no less than fifty concessions in China. They are established in Siam, in Persia, and Morocco. A French Belgian syndicate owns more than half the debts of Santo Domingo. It is safe to say that there is not a spot on the globe where the weakness or rottenness of local government has cast the scent of concessions on the air that Belgians are not already settled, or hovering about expectantly."

The Retort Courteous.

An omnibus full of young Parisian students was rolling down the street, when a quiet looking old gentleman in priest's attire got in. The students, angry in the interruption, began using bad language in the hope of driving him outside. But the priest took no more notice than if the "bus had been perfectly empty. At last he rose to get out.

Then he turned, and very politely said, "Till we meet again, gentlemen."

"Good-bye, old chap," shouted one; "we don't want to see you again."

"Pardon me," replied the priest, "we are sure to meet again. I am the chaplain of Mazas prison."—London T. P's Weekly.

A pack of English foxhounds were in full cry after a fox the other day, and the fox was having a fine run, when, all at once two sheep dogs jumped out, killed the fox and ended the day's sport there and then.

Marmalade, then made only of quinces, was known in Henry VIII's reign. The word is derived from "marmelo," a quince.

HARRIMAN TALKS.

Washington, March 2.—E. H. Harriman is here on his way south to recuperate. In an interview today he seeks to justify his course with the Chicago & Alton. "The president," he says, "is right in what he is trying to do, but is not going about it in the right way, because of a lack of business knowledge. It's not so much what you do, but how and when you do it."

"Lost and Found."

Worn Out!

Hard-working women, worn out by the toils of household or other labor, need the balmy relief and reinforcement to be found in Wine of Cardui. The pains that they suffer, the miseries that they bear, as a result of female ailments, brought on by overwork, are mostly unnecessary and can be relieved or cured by the use of this wonderfully successful woman's remedy, which succeeds because it acts scientifically, medicinally and curatively, on the womanly organs and constitution.

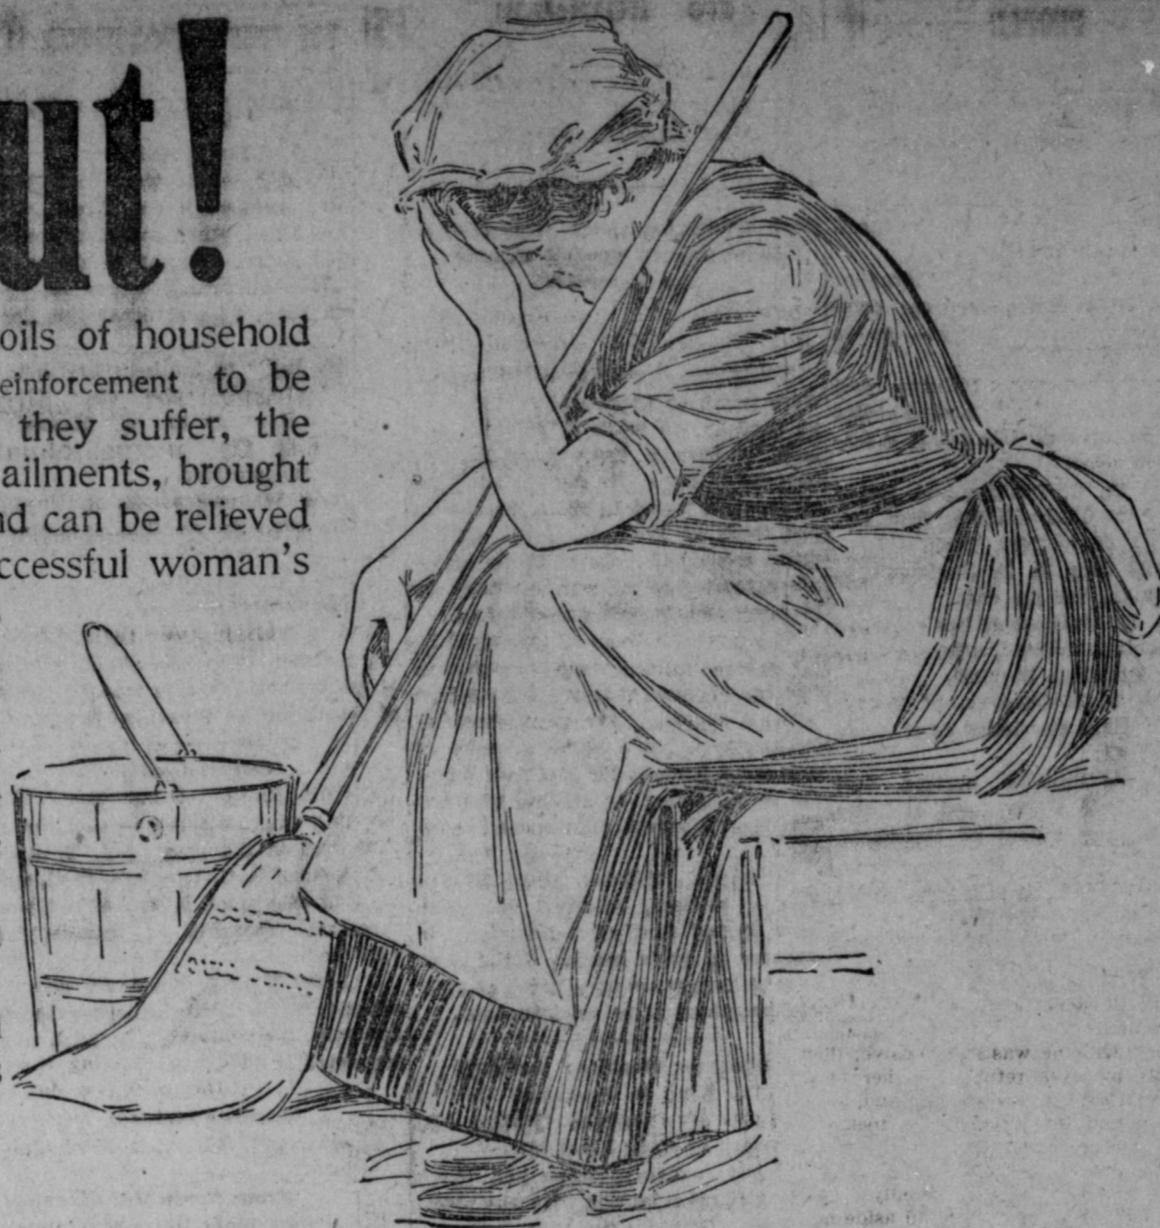

Made entirely of pure, vegetable ingredients, and being strictly harmless and non-intoxicating, it is the ideal tonic, strengthening medicine, for weak girls and women.

Its action is such, that it puts strength where women most need it.

Thousands of thankful women have written letters telling of the wonderful curative results they obtained, by its use for their troubles.

Why not try it for yours?

It will surely help you.

Suffered Untold Agony

Bartonville, Ill., Jan. 3, 1906.

For eight (8) years I suffered from various female diseases. I had backache and headache, so bad every month, I would have to lie down. And again, I suffered untold agony, with bearing-down pains below my waist. My eyes pained and had large brown circles around them. No one can ever know what I suffered. I have lain and wrung my hands, and sat up in bed and rocked myself at night, trying to gain ease. I doctored and doctored without relief. Finally I gave up to an operation, but after I pulled through, I seemed to suffer all the same, if not worse. Finally I began to take Wine of Cardui, and have now been taking it for about a year. It has improved me wonderfully. I have recommended it to many friends, who see and know what it has done for me.

During the past summer, I have done all my housework and worked in kitchen and garden every day. I am now in good health, look well and suffer no more pain. My nerves are daily getting stronger. MRS. WM. TURNER.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY

Margaret Leveau and Lexie Grief. Delightful refreshments were served. Those present were: Madge Grief, Margaret Leveau, Laura Traister, Mern Nichols, Ella Mansfield, Juliet Pace, Iia Earnhardt, Ida Dean, Trainer, Henrietta Earnhardt, Joe Pace Louis Leveau, Vane Hoskiss, Herbert Evitts, Lexie Grief, Hal Earnhardt.

Social Evening.

The National Protective Legion entertained with a social evening on Thursday at the W. O. W. hall on North 4th street. District Manager J. Grant High presided and delivered an address. Solos were rendered by Miss Inez Bell and Mr. Ernest Bell, a reading was given by Mr. Will Farley. An elaborate luncheon was served in the banquet hall. About 75 guests were present.

Annual Ball.

The first annual ball of the Retail Clerk's Union took place on Thursday evening at the Eagle's Hall. It was a largely attended and successful affair.

Concert a Pleasant Event.

The concert given last evening at the First Christian church under the auspices of the Church Furnishing society was a pleasant occasion and the program a very attractive one.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party was given Allison Watts on Tuesday evening, at his home 1249 Trimble street, by a number of his friends. Music, games and refreshments were enjoyed. In the party were: Misses Ida Sexton, Mabel Eppenheimer, Mamie Heath, Jessie Gott, Ruth Gott, Lena Miles, Maydie Watts, Bessie Lou Watts; Messrs Frank Beadles, George McFadden, Will McFadden, Omer Hall, Manly Hardison, Allison Watts.

Entertained at Cards.

Miss Ruth Benson, of 5th and Tennessee street, entertained quite a number of her friends on Friday evening at cards. Refreshments were served and the occasion was a pleasant one.

Pleasant Finch Party.

Misses Irene McKinney and Mr. Clifton Senter gave an enjoyable finch party on Wednesday evening at their home in Arcadia. A bean guessing contest was also a feature of pleasure. Mr. Allie Starr captured the prize. Refreshments were served during the evening. A number of guests were present.

Alert People.

Mrs. Arthur Gardner and daughter Mrs. Henry Rudy, will leave Monday for a stay at French Lick Springs, where Mrs. Gardner goes to recuperate from an illness of grip.

Miss Anne Sherrill Baird left on Wednesday for Pass Christian to join her brother Mr. J. H. Baird, who with his wife, is spending the winter at the Mexican Gulf Hotel of Pass Christian.

Miss Sarah Weeks of 503 North 4th street and her guests, Miss Myrtle Lindsey of Madisonville and Miss Cuthbert Roach of Gracey left this week for Hot Springs, Ark., and Southern Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beauchamp, of Paducah, who have for several years been making their home in San Francisco, have gone to Japan, Mr. Beauchamp being sent out by his firm, the Hammond Packing company to establish a branch house. Mrs. Mac Beauchamp will remain in San Francisco.

Miss Anita Wood of Wichita, Kan. will arrive from St. Paul the last of next week to visit Miss Ethel Brooks, of North 7th street. Miss Wood spent a few days with Miss Brooks in Jan.

AWAY WITH HEADACHES

It may seem all nonsense to you, our claim that headaches can be relieved by wearing glasses, that the dull headache, which you have had for a year, may disappear like magic if glasses are worn. It is a matter common knowledge that at least seven tenths of all headaches come from eye strain. We rarely fail to relieve headaches with our glasses, and if you are a sufferer and have tried doctors and druggists until you are disgusted, come to us and let us talk it over.

uary en route to St. Paul and will complete her visit now in returning. She will be accompanied to Wichita by Miss Brooks who will be her guest for several weeks.

Miss Carrie Ewell, of 313 North Sixth street, left Friday for Mobile Ala., and points in Texas where she will visit relatives for several weeks. She will go from there to Douglas, Arizona, where her oldest brother, Mr. John Ewell lives. If Miss Ewell likes Arizona it is probable she will make her home there as her brother is very anxious for her to stay. She will remain for six months in any event. Miss Ewell was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends on Monday evening. She is a popular girl with many friends to regret her going from Paducah.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott and little Miss Katherine Julia Scott are expected home the first part of the week from Montgomery, Ala., where Mrs. Scott has spent the winter.

New Minister's Mistake.

The Right Rev. Leighton Coleman, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Delaware, tells the following story:

"One warm summer afternoon a few years ago," he said recently, "the sexton of a quaint old Maryland church showed me through the cool, dim old building, and as we were departing showed me the big Bible and smiled."

"A strange thing happened last Sunday in connection with that Bible," he said. "We had a strange minister preaching here, and when he opened the book he came upon a notice and read it out with due solemnity."

"It was a request for the congregation's sympathy and prayers for John Q. Griggs, who had been deeply afflicted by the loss of his wife."

"The sexton paused and chuckled softly. 'You see, sir,' he said, 'our regular minister had been using that paper as a bookmark more than a year, and John Q. Griggs, in a natty gray suit sat in a front pew with a new wife he had taken just the week before.'"

"Yes, sir," said the moralist, "I know a man 103 years old who never chewed, smoked, drank, swore nor flirted with women." "Then he has something to live for yet, hasn't he?" replied the unregenerated youth.—Kansas City Times.

Three Kinds of Tears.

Prof. Stirling, in his lecture, told the audience many strange things about their eyes. The eyelashes, for instance, contain from 100 to 150 hairs on the upper and 80 to 90 on the lower lid; these hairs are replaced about every 100 days. Tears are of three kinds, he continued:

"1. Natural tears, the little flood which nature secretes in the eye to wash away all the dust particles."

"2. Psychic tears, which flow when minds are for the moment unbalanced; and,

"3. Alcoholic tears."

"Tears do not always overflow, because there is just a little oily secretion along the edges of our eyelids which keeps the fluid back."

The Japanese have a peculiar overlapping fold, which obscures the real edge of the eyelid. That is why their eyes look slanting. And babies—all the mothers in the room bent forward—"have just the same fold on their eyes if you look for it."

"I'm afraid you're an idle fellow, Sam?" "No, sah; I'm not idle, sah! Why, I gits my wife more work dan she can do, sah!"—Yonkers Statesman.

OLD OFFICERS

ARE ALL RE-ELECTED BY HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

First Year's Work Has Been Successful and Workers Are More Enthusiastic.

The Paducah High School Alumni association elected officers yesterday afternoon at the Washington building and heard an excellent paper on "Sydney Lanier and His Life" by Mrs. A. R. Meyers. Other business was routine.

All old officers were re-elected as follows: Mrs. A. R. Meyers, president; Miss Ada Brazelton, first vice-president; Mrs. Hal S. Corbett, second vice-president; Mrs. John J. Dorian, recording secretary; Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, corresponding secretary, and Mr. Richard Scott, treasurer.

The first year of the association's existence has proven successful, and more and better work is anticipated for this year. The association now has seventy members.

TAX RATE

WILL BE $1.85, JUST TWENTY CENTS HIGHER THAN LAST YEAR.

Finance Committee of General Council Meets and Decides on Levy Ordinance.

Last evening the joint finance committee of the general council authorized the adoption of a $1.85 cent tax rate and the employment of License Inspector George Lehnhard as a "committee clerk" to do all the clerical work for committees of the two boards. The monthly allowance of the Home of the Friendless was increased from $70 to $100 per month. City Solicitor James Campbell was allowed an increase of from 10 per cent to 25 per cent for back tax collections. A compromise of $1,800 suggested by the solicitor in the case of Mrs. Addie Crutchfield against the city, who got a judgment for $2,300, was authorized.

is caused by tiny grains of uric acid sand in your joints or muscles, which scratch and irritate your nerves in a thousand places. At first you only feel a twinge now and then, in the foot, leg, shoulder, back, or elsewhere. But in time, as the deposits of uric acid sand increase, chronic rheumatism results and cripples you with pain.

Uric acid is a part of the body's waste, and is being produced by the tissues all over your body all the time. If your blood is weakened by cold, injury, infection, or any other cause, or if you eat more—particularly meat—than your tissues can use, the waste matter is not thrown out through the kidneys fast enough, and uric acid accumulates. One of the world's greatest scientists, Alexander Haig, A. M., M. D. Oron, F. R. C. P., of England, says:

"Every man who eats ordinary diet with meat twice a day, will, by the time he is 35 or 40, have accumulated 300 to 400 grains (weight) of uric acid in his tissues, and be subject to chronic rheumatism."

Once uric acid sand has a hold, your blood unaided cannot remove it. YOU MUST GIVE IT LIFE PLANT! LIFE PLANT is Nature's own weapon against uric acid. Given LIFE PLANT, which has the power of dissolving uric acid sand, your blood will thoroughly clear your body of the cause of rheumatism and other uric acid diseases. Thousands of unsolicited testimonials prove what LIFE PLANT will do. Read this:

"I was afflicted with rheumatism in my knees and arms, which were so badly swollen that I was obliged to crawl up and down stairs and almost unable to do any work. I also suffered a great deal of pain at night. After I had taken four bottles of Life Plant I was entirely cured, and have not suffered since. I heartily recommend it to any person afflicted with rheumatism."

Some shred of her thought, some suggestion of the comparison running through her mind, must have shown in her face, for Chilcote altered his position with a touch of uneasiness. He

"What likeness?" he asked sharply, glanced away from the long sweep of tan covered drive stretching between the trees. Then he glanced furtively back.

"By the way," he said quickly, "you wanted me for something?" The memory of her earlier suggestion came as a sudden blow.

She lifted her muff again and sniffed her roses thoughtfully. "Oh, it was nothing, really," she said. "You sarcastic people give very shrewd suggestions sometimes, and I've been rather wanting a suggestion on an—adventure that I've had." She looked down at her flowers with a charmingly attentive air.

But Chilcote's restlessness had increased. Looking up, she suddenly caught the expression, and her own face changed.

"My dear Jack!" she said softly, "what a bore I am! Let's forget tedious things and enjoy ourselves." She turned toward him caressingly with an air of concern and reproach.

The action was not without effect. Her soothing voice, her smile, her almost affectionate gesture, each carried weight. With a swift return of assurance he responded to her tone.

"Right!" he said. "Right! We will enjoy ourselves!" He laughed quickly and again with a conscious movement lifted his hand to his muffled.

"Then we'll postpone the advice," Lillian laughed too.

"Yes, Right! We'll postpone it." The word pleased him, and he caught at it. "We won't bother about it now, but we won't shelve it altogether. We'll postpone it."

"Exactly." She settled herself more comfortably. "You'll dine with me one night—and we can talk it out then. I see so little of you nowadays," she added in a lower voice.

"My dear girl, you're unfair!" Chilcote's spirits had risen. He spoke rapidly, almost pleasantly. "It isn't I who keep away. It's the stupid affairs of the world that keep me. I'd be with you every hour of the twelve if I had my way."

She looked up at the bare trees. Her expression was a delightful mixture of amusement, satisfaction and skepticism. "Then you will dine?" she said at last.

"Certainly." His reaction to high spirits carried him forward.

"Now nice? Shall we fix a day?" "A day? Yes; yes—if you like." He hesitated for an instant, then again the impulse of the previous moment dominated his other feeling. "Yes," he said quickly; "yes. After all, why not fix it now?" With a sudden inclination toward amiability he opened his overcoat, thrust his hand into an inner pocket and drew out his engagement book—the same long, narrow book fitted with two pencils that Loder had loaned so interestedly on his first morning at Grosvenor square. He opened it, turning the pages rapidly.

"What day shall it be? Thursday's full—and Friday—and Saturday. What a bore!" He still talked fast.

Lillian leaned across. "What a sweet book!" she said. "But why the blue crosses?" She touched one of the pages with her gloved finger.

Chilcote jerked the book, then laughed, with a touch of embarrassment. "Oh, the crosses! Merely to remind me that certain appointments must be kept. You know my beastly memory! But what about the day? Shall we fix the day?" His voice was in control, but mentally her trivial question had disturbed and jarred him. "What day shall we say?" he repeated. "Monday in next week?"

Lillian glanced up, with a faint exclamation of disappointment. "How horribly far away!" She spoke with engaging petulance and, leaning forward, drew the book from Chilcote's hand. "What about tomorrow?" she exclaimed, turning back a page.

"Why not tomorrow? I knew I saw a blank space."

"Tomorrow! Oh I—I!" He stopped. "Jack!" Her voice dropped. "It was true that she desired Chilcote's opinion on her adventure, for Chilcote's opinion on men and manners had a certain bitter shrewdness, but the exercise of her own power added a point to the desire. If the matter had ended with the gain or loss of a tete-a-tete with him, it is probable that, whatever its utility, she would not have pressed it, but the underlying motive was the stronger. Chilcote had been a satellite for years, and it was unpleasant that any satellite should drop away into space.

"Jack!" she said again in a lower and still more effective tone, and, lifting her muff, she buried her face in her flowers. "I suppose I shall have to dine and go to a music hall with Leonard—or stay at home by myself," she murmured, looking out across the trees.

Again Chilcote glanced over the long, tan strewn ride. They had made the full circuit of the park.

"It's tiresome being by oneself," she murmured.

For awhile he was irresponsive; then slowly his eyes returned to her face. He watched her for a second, and, leaning quickly toward her, he took his book and scribbled something in the vacant space.

She watched him interestedly. Her face lighted up, and she laid aside her muff.

"Dear Jack!" she said. "How very sweet of you!" Then, as he held the book toward her, her face fell. "Dine 33 Cadogan gardens, 8 o'clock; talk with L." she read. "Why, you've forgotten the essential thing!"

He looked up. "The essential thing?" She smiled. "The blue cross," she said. "Isn't it worth even a little one?" The tone was very soft. Chilcote yielded.

"You have the blue pencil," he said in sudden response to her mood.

She glanced up in quiet pleasure at her success, and, with a charming affectation of seriousness, marked the engagement with a big cross. At the same moment the car slackened speed, as the chauffeur waited for further orders.

Lillian shut the engagement book and handed it back. "Where can I drop you?" she asked. "At the club?"

The question recalled him to a sense of present things. He thrust the book into his pocket and glanced about him.

They had paused by Hyde park corner. The crowd of horses and carriages had thinned as the hour of lunch drew near, and the wide roadway of the park had an air of added space. The suggested loneliness affected him.

The tall trees, still bereft of leaves, and the colossal gateway incomprehensively stirred the sense of mental panic that sometimes seized him in face of vastness of space or of architecture. In one moment Lillian, the appointment he had just made, the manner of its making, all left him. The world was filled with his own personality, his own immediate inclinations.

"Don't bother about me!" he said quickly. "I can get out here. You've been very good. It's been a delightful morning." With a hurried pressure of her fingers he rose and stepped from the car.

Reaching the ground, he paused for a moment and raised his hat; then, without a second glance, he turned and walked rapidly away.

Lillian sat watching him meditatively. She saw him pass through the gateway, saw him halt a moment; then she remembered the waiting chauffeur.

A Versatile Poet.

Longfellow is unique among the great American poets in writing all three forms of verse, epic, lyric and dramatic. The dramas, or course, do not appeal to us as the lyrics and the narrative poems do, but even here we see the poetic perception that either fuses two objects in nature into a living compound, or else carries their fanciful yet essential likeness through a brilliant comparison. —The Book News Monthly for February

THAT ALTON DEAL MAY BE UNDONE

Thirty-two Million Bond Issue Quite Invalid

Harriman May Hear From States and Stockholders Concerning Peculiar Transaction.

THE TESTIMONY AT COMMISSION

New York, March 2.—The state of Illinois, in the opinion of the interstate commerce commission, may attack the validity of the $32,000,000 Alton railroad bonds issued by E. H. Harriman when the wizard and his colleagues reorganized the company.

The bonds were issued ostensibly to build the cutoff from Murraysville to Springfield. The sale of the $32,000,000 issue realized $20,882,420—that is, they were turned over to the Harriman syndicate for that amount.

Held by Big Life Companies.

The New York Life insurance company bought $10,000,000 worth and the Equitable $1,500,000. Another block amounting to $8,607,085 was deposited with the Central Trust company to pay off coupons due on other obligations, while still another block of $6,669,000 was divided between Harriman, Gould, Stillman and Schiff.

What became of the balance is not revealed, but when the Rock Island took control of the Alton last fall under its agreement with Harriman, it found the treasury empty, the cutoff not built, and no money to build it with.

May Attack Harriman Merger.

The commission closed its hearings today, and the results, it is hinted, will be ominous to Harriman's interests.

The commission, it is understood, will report to the attorney general of the United States that the anti-trust law has been violated, and the courts appealed to dissolve Harriman's merger of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, as well as the dual control of the Alton by the Union Pacific and the Rock Island.

The government attorneys believe that the Northern Securities decision covers these mergers as well.

The supreme court of the United States may be asked, too, to compel Mr. Harriman to tell whether or not some of the stock he sold to his own railroad company at a price fixed by himself was not owned by himself.

Rights of Illinois.

The right of the state of Illinois to attack the $32,000,000 Alton bond issue was brought out near the close of the hearing, when Controller Hillard, of the Alton, was on the stand.

Mr. Hillard, in answer to questions, admitted that he had been advised by counsel that the bond issue was illegal under the constitution of Illinois.

This admission startled Mr. Harriman's counsel, and Attorney Lovett sought to weaken Hillard's testimony.

Commissioner Harlan interposed to read the section of the Illinois constitution which is said to cover the case. It is as follows:

"No railroad corporation shall issue any stock or bonds except for money, labor, or property actually received and applied to the purpose for which such corporation was created; and all stock dividends and other fictitious increases of the capital stock or indebtedness of any such corporation shall be void."

"I think the validity of those bonds could be attacked," Mr. Harlan said later.

More Light On Alton.

There was more light on Alton finances when Controller Hillard was put on the stand. He proved a most hostile witness to Harriman. He said he had examined the books and found that the first mention of the transaction by which the credit of $12,447,000 was "discovered" by the Harriman syndicate to justify the extra stock dividend of 30 per cent., was in a report of the president advising the four directors that he had found that a large amount had been applied out of the earnings to improvements in the past and recommending that it should be capitalized. The minutes then showed that the four directors voted "That the report of the president be and hereby is approved and the auditor instructed to make such entries to conform the book account with that report."

Hillard said that of the $12,447,000 approximately $11,000,000 seemed to be the losses incurred prior to 1863 by the original stockholders who built the old Joliet and Alton road.

New Trick In Railroad.

The balance of the $12,447,000 was found by "re-casting" annual statements of the company and taking out certain items found charged to operating expenses and income accounts.

"As a railroad man, did you ever hear of such a thing?" Attorney Kellogg asked.

"I can't say I ever did," replied the witness who said that these items that had been "re-casted" had been paid out by the old management and charged off, the dividends paid, and the accounts closed every year by order of the old directors.

"So that this $12,447,000 was simply taken out of an account which had already been paid out of the earnings of the road and was charged to the cost of property and credited to capital account?"

"Yes, they were credited to this account which they used really as a capital account."

"And then after paying this dividend out of the mortgage, out of the money borrowed, was that 30 per cent. dividend charged against this item?"

Charged Up the Discount. Hillard said this was correct.

New Insurance Men Dummies.

Thomas W. Lawson speaks as plainly as ever in his article on "The Burning Insurance Issue," in the October Everybody's. He says:

"The men in charge today of the New York Life and the Mutual Life are as much the creatures and the creation of H. H. Rogers, William Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan, and other lights of the 'System' as ever were the unfortunate McCurdy and the ill-fated McCall. I am as familiar as any one else with the reform talk put forth by the unco respectable Peabodys and Orms, but I assure you that it is no more than an adroit subterfuge to gain time and also avert suspicion as to induce policy-holders to entrust to the same hands the custody of their valuable savings. It is as though a gambling-house which had become notorious for cheating should change the curtains at its windows and the name over its door and without sacrificing its clogged dice or its double-decked faro-boxes should attempt to attract back the patronage of the gambling public with the cry that it had become virtuous. A few virtuous announcements and a fresh firm name are not convincing proofs of a change of heart. A new era of virtue and fair dealing can only be inaugurated by the extirpation, root and branch, of the old gang, and the substitution thereof of a new order pledged to a square deal."

"Papa, what is a dividend?" "It is what is left over, my son, after the president, the board of directors, the legal representatives and politicians have gotten through."—Life.

Mrs. Eddy's Son Sues Church Leaders For An Accounting of Her Property

Concord, N. H., March 2.—A bill in equity to secure an accounting of the financial affairs of Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, head of the Christian Science church, was filed in the superior court today by Mrs. Eddy's son, George W. Glover, of Deadwood, S. D., and his daughter, Miss Mary Baker Glover, and George W. Baker, of Bangor, Maine, a nephew and "next friend" of Mrs. Eddy.

The bill is directed against Alfred Farlow and other trustees of the Christian Science church of Boston, and Calvin A. Frye, Mrs. Eddy's secretary, Lewis O. Strong, her assistant secretary and Herman S. Herring, first reader of the church in Concord.

Hint at Wrongdoings.

Besides demanding an accounting of all transactions in connection with Mrs. Eddy's affairs the bill asks for restitution in case any wrong-doing appears for an injunction during the litigation against any interference with her property and business, and for a receiver.

In a statement issued tonight by former United States Senator Chandler, special counsel in the action it is declared that Glover is actuated by no spirit of disrespect to his mother, but believes that he is proceeding in her real interest.

Not Directed Against Religion.

Glover says the action is not directed against the religion of Christian Scientists. The statement further declares that Glover had long thought his mother was growing too feeble in body and mind to attend to important business matters but that for a long time he was unable to confirm this suspicion because those immediately about her seemed unwilling to allow even her nearest relatives to have an interview long enough to reveal her actual condition.

Early in January it is stated Glover during a visit to Concord was enabled to talk with his mother three quarters of an hour and as a result, after due consideration, he decided upon present action "as an imperative duty, too long neglected."

The action is returnable at the April term of court which assembles on the first Tuesday of the month.

Say Mrs. Eddy Is Incompetent.

Specifically the bill alleges Mrs. Eddy is and for a long time has been incompetent to do business or to understand transactions conducted in her name in connection with her property; that the defendants have possessed themselves of her person and property and have carried on her business; that having done this knowing of her infirmity, they have become trustees for her of all property which has come into her possession and are bound to give account thereof and of all their transactions in her name; that there is reason to fear the defendant's wrongfully converted some of her property to their own use and that there are particular transactions of which an account should be given.

Who Are "First-Nighters."

This is the season of first nights; and the audiences that attend them in New York are strange and fear-some things, the like of which, I am persuaded, is to be found no place else on the face of the earth. There is a pleasant fiction that these audiences are made up of highly intellectual, cultivated folk, a self-constituted tribunal whose scholastic attainments are so high, whose critical taste is so finely developed that from its judgment there is no appeal.

Really, the first-night audience is nothing of the sort. To be a first-nighter three things are essential: the inclination to buy seats for every first presentation on Broadway the ability to pay for them, and to appear at the performance in evening clothes, or at least in an evening jacket. It is unnecessary to remark that genuine High-Brows have small respect for these qualifications; in fact they hold them rather cheaply, as being unworthy of consideration by Superior Minds.

One can always recognize the first-nighters because they occupy the best seats and display no emotion whatever their faces being very perfect mirrors of their minds. They are mostly celebrated persons, whose names appear constantly in newspapers; for instance, "Honest John," "Diamond Jim," "Plunger Mike," and alimony lawyers—picturesque persons who go to make up the life of a great city. There are some two hundred seats reserved for every

This ash pan saves both dirt and trouble

"Your life—dear housewife—is at best one constant round of petty details. He who saves you an extra step is in truth a real philanthropist."

A little thing—and yet how tremendously important in the saving of kitchen labor—is a rightly constructed ash pan—one large enough not to require constant emptying—one so constructed that it will fit under the lip of the "clean-out door" and save the scattering of soot over the kitchen floor—one so made that it will receive all the ashes and not leave part of them at the sides of the pan—one bailed and balanced so that it will not "dump" prematurely—one that is "ash tight" and is built to out-live the stove.

Such a pan you will find in a Buck's stove or range—a small matter, but a big reason why you should own a Buck's.

Let us tell you about these exceptional stoves and their many advantages—today.

A dollar down and a dollar a week will buy one of these splendid stoves. You surely can't afford to miss this chance. Take advantage of it today.
